PERSONAL.—Our facetious fellow-citizen, Judge Donn Piatt, has recently been making Republican speeches in Providence, R. I., and other North-eastern cities. On Tuesday he delivered himself in New York, of what the "metropolitan" journals term a very laughable dissertation on the Union-saving politics and policy of the past few years. No. 415 East Fourth, st.

ner, mail agent on the Cincinnati and In-dianopolis Railroad, has been removed, and a Mr. Barber, brother-in-law to the late J. L. Robinson, oppointed in his stead. The old incumbent was an adherent of Douglas. The new one is a supporter of Breckinridge.

BURGLARY IN CLINTON-STREET.—The residence of James Watt, on Clinton-street, near John, was feloniously entered night before last and robbed of money, clothing and jew-city, amounting in the aggregate to nearly $70. The house was entered by means of an outsider, and the burgiars, although discovered, managed to escape with their booty.

Proceedings of the County Commissioners passed one order amounting to $36, which was paid to Ferdinand Tipps for building two culverts on the extension of the Lower River-road, in Delhi Township. No other business of any kind was transacted.

$30, and $27 in bank bills and coin.

A Lab Committed to Jail for Laborny. John Baker, the lad who was arrested a few days ago upon a charge of stealing a lot of silver-ware from the residence of Dr. Taft, had an examination yesterday morning before Judge Lowe, and, although the evidence against him was not very conclusive, was committed to jail to answer the charge before the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

LABRENT IN ANDRESON TOWNSHIP.—A man named Samuel Henderson was arrested day before yesterday at the instance of Morris Watkins, upon the charge of stealing an ax from the residence of the latter, in Newton Anderson Township, and taken before Justice Bodine, who committed him to juil in default of bail in the sum of $100 to answer the charge of larceny before the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

Substiff at his regular weekly sale of real estate, which took place yesterday morning in the Rotunda of the Court-house, disposed of but one piece of property, as follows:

The planing-mill, improvements and lot on the north-east side of Central-avenue, opposite Dayton-street, near Proctor & Gamble's Soap Factory. The lot is fifty feet front and extends back to the Miami Canalty valued at $10,000 for ground and improvements; sold to William Ernst for $6,666 67.

FIRE YESTERDAY ASTRANOON, - About

NEWSPAPERIAL.—The statement published a day or two ago in a couple of our cotemporaries, to the effect that the Evening Times had changed hands, proves to have been entirely unfounded. We heard the rumor some time, but gave he credence to it, therefore did not publish it, and the facts, it will be seen, now show the correctness of our opinion.

The Branking Many and Man

The Breckinridge organ that has been promised for so long a time, we have been authoritatively informed, will make its appearance next Sunday. It will be called the Oincinast Daily Courier, and will be under the editorial supervision of Mr. McChesney, recently of the Louisville Courier. In anticipation, we welcome our ante-matal brother to a place among the press of the city, and its corps of editors, one and all, to the arduous and vexatious duties of journalistic life.

OFERING OF THE NATIONAL THEATER.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, the names of the members of the new company at the National Theater will be found, together with the programme for to-morrow evening, the opening night. Mr. Hamley, the leading man, is quite a pleasing actor. Stuart Robson, the comedian, is very clever in his way, and Addie Proctor, the soubrette, is capital and a favorite.

Of the other members we know little, save by reputation, but feel assured the company is superior to any that has appeared at Oid Drusy for some years. The performance will commence with Love's Sacrifice, and after a par by the sisters Henrade, will close with Sketches in India, with Addie Proctor as "Sallie Schaggg," a part in which she has considerable reputation.

Conclusion.—It is very easy for unscrupulous persons to make a very high sounding, but inscreet, sistement out of very scarfy materials. Say the advertisement of Mesers. He on & Wilson in another column.

LAW REPORT.

Democratic Meeting at the Wade-Street Market—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Douglas wing of the Democracy was held at the Wade-street Market-space, last night, which was presided over by John G. Kelley. Thomas Henahan and A. C. Cramer were selected as Vice-Presidents, and Henry Fritsche appointed Secretary.

The principal speaker was the Hon. George E. Pugh, who opened by asking why the Republican party had an existence? He said that none but an idiot now believed that slavery could be extended into the Territorics, and there being no danger of this, it was folly to draw party lines upon that issue. He then reviewed the political career of Mr. Lincoln, contending that he was an illiterate and obscure individual, who could not make his living by splitting rails, and therefore went into the practice of law. He likewise charged him with being the father of the irrepressible-conflict doctrine; Seward only seized upon his idea and dressed it up in elegant language, and disposed of it as his own.

Fatal Accident at the Burnet House—A Citizen of New York Instantly Killed at Accident at the Burnet House at Action at A Fall—A young man, named John H. Hyde, clerk in the establishment of Jones & Smith, wall-paper manufacturers, in Liberty-street, New York, arrived in the city vesterday morning, and took rooms at the Burnet House. He became quite inebrated during the forenoon, and about two o'clock, while coming down stairs, when he had reached the first landing, by some means pitched head foremost over the balustrade against the marble-paved corridor, striking the floor with such force as to crush his skull. Although the unfortunate man fell but ten or twelve feet, he lived but a few moments after he had been carried to his room.

Coroner Carey held an inquest upon the body, which, in connection with the above, developed the fact that he resided in Williamsburg, New York, and leaves a wife and family to mourn his untimely taking-off. The painful nows was telegraphed to New York by Mr. Johnson, the senior proprietor of the Burnet, and the body will be properly cared for until his friends can be heard from.

Robbert of Several Boarding-Houses—

ROBBERY OF SEVERAL BOARDING-HOUSES—AN ADROIT AND SUCCESSFUL THEF.—Day before yesterday a man engaged boarding at the house of Mr. Ruckle, corner of Ninth and Walnut, and was shown to his room. In the afternoon he was missing, and upon examination it was found that he had ransacked the entire house and carried away $28 in gold and silver, which he found in a trunk belonging to one of the boarders. Mr. R. went to the station-house to inform the Police of the robbery, when he discovered that a man answering the same description had entered in the same manner a Congressistreet boarding-house, and stolen four silver watches and about $52 in money. No clue has as yet been obtained as to his whereabouts, and we presume he is adroit enough to entirely escape detection.

To Tue Applicable—The celebrated Oc-ROBBERY OF SEVERAL BOARDING-HOUSES

To The Applicable.—The celebrated Oculist and Aurist, W. K. Everson, M. D., and equally celebrated Surgeon and Physician in the treatment of chronic diseases generally, is now stopping at the Dennison House, in this city (but will soon start on a tour through the West), where the afflicted will have an opportunity of testing the efficiency of his acknowledged skill. He is an able, experienced, scientific physician, and carries with him the highest testimonials of regard from the most distinguished of his profession. We commend him to all who may need his professional services.

Sudden Demise.—Coroner Carey was called

Supper Demise.—Coroner Carey was called upon last evening to hold an inquest upon the body of a man named Adam Schuell, who died suddenly at his residence on the corner of Sixth and Broadway. The deceased has for a long time been extremely intemperate, and his death was caused by his excessive use of liquor. He was a native of Switzerland, about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and three children.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A LITTLE GIRL.—A child about three years of age, daughter of Mr. Golden, residing in Spring-street, fell from the second-story window of the house in which her parents lived, yesterday afternoon, and was so severely injured that she died in about an hour. Her skull was fearfully fractured and some of her ribs broken, one of which pierced the lung and thus linatened her denise.

A Man Agrested on a Change of Attended to Violate the Person of a Little Girl.—A man maned Samuel Nathans was, yesterday, arrested by Officer Lincoln on a charge of attempting to violate the person of a little girl, about ten years of age, whose name we were unable to learn, whose parents reside in the Sixteenth Ward. He will be examined to-day.

LAYSST FROM JAPAR.—Have you tried the new tess from Japan? Call at Pendery & Co.'s, north-west corner of Fifth and Wal-nut-streets, and get samples, which will be furnished free of charge.

COVINGTON NEWS.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE—A SLAVE CUTS HE THEAT TO AVOID BRING SOLD SOUTH.—On Monday last a slave named Ephraim, the property of Mr. Samuel Rich, who resides about three miles from this city, was lodged in jail, by his master, for some refractory conduct, with a view of sending him South. The negro, whose ideas of plantation life were not very exalted, yesterday morning cut his throat with a knife, but it, fortunately, or unfortunately, was so dull that the wound made was not fatal, though severe. He is about thirty-eight years of age, and is married.

MID-DAY ROBBERY.—Yesterday afternoon about two oclock, two persons entered the grocery-store of Henry Hardy, on Greenup-street, while the owner was in the backyard, and robbed the drawer of the change it contained, being between $2 and $3. They were discovered by Mr. H. just as they were leaving the house, and pursued by him and some friends who volunteered to assist him, and were finally taken and lodged in jail. They gave their names as James Wilson and A. J. Smith. They will be examined to-day.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—The house of a German, named Preiskop, who resides on Eleventh-street, near the rolling-mill, was visited by burglars, night before last, but the inmates were aroused in time to prevent the intruders from obtaining an entrance.

CATHOLIC FAIR.—The Catholic Fair, for the benefit of the school under the superin-tendence of the Church, is largely attended, and it is believed that a considerable sum of money will be realized.

Special Election.—A special election for a member of the City Council, in the Second Ward, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John Battersby, will take place to-morrow, at the usual place of holding the election.

Robbery of the Kentucky House.—The trunk of one of the toarders of the Kentucky House was, yesterday, robbed of $80 by a fellow-boarder. We were unable to learn the name of either of the parties.

NEWPORT NEWS.

ALARM OF FIRE.—A faire alarm of fire occurred yesterday, occasioned by the burning of a chimney on Ringgold-street.

SUNDAY LIQUOR LAW.—The beer-venders of Newport will hold a meeting at the City Hall to-night, to take into consideration the subject of the ordinance prohibiting the sale of ardent spirits on Sunday.

Annest of a Vaccant,—Kate Collins, an old vagrant, was yesterday arrested by Officer Horsfal, and lodged in jail. She will be brought before the Mayor to-day.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT ALEXANDRIA .- A meeting of Breckinridge Democrats will be held at Alexandria on Monday next, for the purpose of electing a County Executive Com-mittee.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY.—We are daily placed under obligations to this excellent company for Eastern papers in advance of the mail. Such favors are always appreciated.

Mr. S. C. Meredith will also accept our thanks for Indianapolis and St. Louis papers.

REMOVAL OF A MAIL AGENT,-D, M. Skin-

Highway Robert Aman named Joseph Ross, who resides some place in the Third Ward, was assaulted and robbed, night before last, near the corner of Lawrence and Front-street. He was considerably bruised by the blows he received, and his pockets were rifled of a watch valued at $30 and $27 in bank bills sayd coin.

MINISTRBIAL.—Hev. William A. Small-wood, formerly of this diocese, but lately of Maryland, has accepted a call to the pulpit of the Church of the Advent, at Walnut Hills, which was recently rendered vacant by the resignation of Rev. C. George Currie. Mr. S. enters upon his new field of labor next Sunday week.

FIRE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.— About half-past one o'clock yesterday afternoon, a fire broke out in the residence of J. C. Ratcliffe, on the southwest corner of Central-avenue and Sixth-street, which originated in a defective flue. The fire department was promptly on the ground and the fire was extinguished without any extensive damage. The less of J. W. Hannaford, druggist, whose establishment adjoins the above, it is said, will reach $200 or $300, which was caused entirely by water. This is fully covered by insurance, as is also the exceedingly slight loss of Mr. Ratcliffe.

ANOTHER PROBABLE HOMICIDE—A SEPTE-GERARIAN BEATEN ALMOSTTO DEATH.—Aman, seventy-two years of age, named George Klaus, who, we believe, resides in Belieview, illinois, was masulted and brutally beaten yesterday morning, near the Newport forey-landing, under the following circumstances. He had arrived in the city by the Ohio and Mississippi Railway, on a visit to his daughter, who resides in Newport. When near the corner of Lawrence and Water-stroot he accosted a man and inquired the way to Newport, but as he received no reply passed on, when the man followed him, knocked him down and struck him with a stung-shot with such force as to fracture his skull-so badly that he can not recover.

He was removed to the residence of his relatives in Newport, where his wound was properly attended to by some physicians, who, it is stated, took thirteen pieces of the skull from the wound he had received. A man named Thomas P. White was arristed by Lieutenani Brockington, charged with the assault, and held its the same of $2500 for his appearance, before, Judge Lowe notices.

A Gallant Commander of a Pamone Militery Corps in Trouble—A Due-bill Collected under Five Years' Difficulties.

A funous military corps recently visited the Queen City covered with the laurels they had earned by the excellence of their drill in other leading cities. Their commander, who had instructed them in their maneuvers, was in the full glow of self-satisfaction; for on him had been poured the most lavish praises and the highest honors, civic and military, in every place in which he had set his foot. The future looked fair to him, doubtless, and if he felt proudly, it was, perhaps, excusable under the circumstances.

Alas, that in the midst of his triumph, he was doomed to mortification; that the sun of his glory was to be eclipsed by the most practical little affair possible to conceive.

Five years ago, the gallant commander had visited the town of Newark, in this State, and becoming financially embarassed, had been compelled to borrow the insignificant sum of $20, to pay his hotel-bill, before he could procure his baggage, and return to his home, a flourishing city on the lakes.

Two years after, a young gentleman, clerk at present in one of our principal hotels, but then a resident of Chicago, having obtained possession of the due-bill the valiant soldier had given to the friend who had "accommodated" him, presented it for collection. The commander said it was all right, but that he happened to be a little short just then—it is said, by the by, that this peculiar condition is uniform—no pun intended—with him—and that he would discharge the indebted-ness very soon.

The clerk tried to collect the bill again

In uniform—no pun intended—with him—and that he would discharge the indebtedness very soon.

The clerk tried to collect the bill again and again, but never could find the commander with money enough to liquidate. Some months after, the clerk removed to Milwaukie, and, on a certain occasion, when the "soldier-man" went up there with his company on an excursion, this inexorable bill was again presented.

The commander was now indignant; he would not pay it over again. The clerk, greatly discomfitted, put the document in his pocket once more, and concluded it must remain a suspended debt.

The clerk soon after came down here to fill the situation we have mentioned; and hearing so much of the marvelous powers and performances of the company, of which his creditor was the leading officer, thought he would make a final attempt to "realize" when the corps arrived.

Accordingly the inevitable bill, five years he would make a final attempt to "realize" when the corps arrived.

Accordingly the inevitable bill, five years old, was handed to a constable, who called a few hours after the corps had reached an uptown hotel, and desired the note-maker to pay it. The commandant was furious, and declared in a loud tone that he felt outraged. He would see the officers of Cincinnati and the entire State of Ohio sunk in a very warm and naughty place before he would pay the bill.

the entire State of Ohio sank in a very warm and naughty place before he would pay the bill.

"O, well," remarked the constable, quietly, to the soldier, who was lying with his coat off on the bed, with his watch and several articles of jewelry on a table beside him—at the same time picking up his splendid chronometer; "you can do as you choose about that; this is worth six times the amount of the debt. I want no better security, I assure you."

The commander raved at this cool mode of expression, and talked swords and muskets for a minute, but seeing his gaseonade had no effect on the constable, he altered his tone, and quietly poid the due-bill which had been pursuing him for years.

The commander's wrath rose again, however, the next morning, when he wrote quite an amusing note—designed to be very severe—to the hotel clerk who had been persevering enough to collect the bill. In the missive, the soldier declared it to be his firm conviction that his recent creditor would soon be in the Penitentiary, where he ought to have been long before.

The clerk smiled at this display of temper, and remarked that he did not wonder the commander was angry, because it was the first time he had ever been known to discharge a debt—something to which he was opposed as much from religious scruples as from financial disability.

THE SEWING-MACHINE CONTROVERSY-A THE SEWING-MACHINE CONTROVERSY—A FEW FACTS FOR INCUINING MINDS.—George B. Sloat, in a card to the public, affirms that Judge Nelson's decision is that "of an inferior and netty Court," which "has been virtually annulled or reversed by the recent decision of the Hon. Chief Justice Dunlop, of the Circuit Court of the United States," and Mr. Sloat affirms, in a previous card, that there is no appeal from Judge Dunlop's decision—that it ends the controversy, &c.

Fact No. 1.—Mr. Samuel Nelson is consect.

Fact No. 1.—Mr. Samuel Nelson is one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, and was sitting at Cooperstown, in his circuit jurisdiction, and from his decision there is only the right of appeal to the full bench of the United States Supreme Court.

preme Court.

Fact No. 2.—Mr. James Dunlop is Chief Justice of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, having authority, by act of Congress (chapter eighty-eight, section eleven), to hear and decide cases of appeal from the Commissioner of the Patent Office, as to the granting of new patents, or the relieve of previous ones. And the same statute provides, "That no section of the Judge in any such case shall preclude any person interested from the right to contest the same in any judicial Court in any action in which its validity may come in question."

Fact No. 3.—The decision of Judge Dunlop was given July 31, and that of Judge Nelson August 17.

Query No. 1.—Which is the "petty and inferior court." Judge Nelson of the Supreme Court of the United States, sitting in one of his circuits, or Judge Dunlop, of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia?

Query No. 2.—How can a decision of July. 31 reverse or annul a subsequent one, given some weeks after, on August 17?

Query No. 3.—Is not the assertion of "no appeal" and "end of the controversy" intended to falsify the real facts of the case?

Fact No. 4.—It appears that the matter in issue before Judge Dunlop was merely whether a reissue of patent should be granted to James G. Wilson, as assignee of Alken & Felthousen, the original patentees, for the "wheel feed" dovice, the Commissioner having decided that I. M. Singer was the prior inventor, and it does not appear that any other than Mr. Singer contested the point, or that the question of the date of A. B. Wilson's invention of the date of A. B. Wilson's invention of the friction feed, entered into the hearing at all. The reissue was ordered by Judge Dunlop, and whatever Mr. J. G. Wilson's patent, and putting Mr. Fact No. 5.—In the hearing the fore Judge Nelson, the entire merits of the friction feed were gone into, and all that could be brought to bear against the A. B. Wilson patent was offered in evidence, Mr. Sloat bringing out his J. G. Wilson's patent, and putting Mr. Aikens entire merits of the COMMON PLEAS.

THE NATIONAL FAIR—INJUNCTION TO RESTRAIN THE RESTING THE LUDLOW FARE FOR ILEMS IS NO CONNECTION WITH THE FAIR.—John Ludlow re. Henry Berbuide, E. T. Brown and E. P. Joseph. An application for an injunction; heard by Judge Collins.

The plaintiff, John Ludlow, rented his farm, near Spring Grove-avenue, to Berheide, for the term of five years and it is claimed, on his behalf, that the use contemplated is a breach of the convenants of the lease; that B. obtained the lease to carry on the business of a farmer, while the connection of it, as now proposed, would involve a serious injury to the land, so farsa sagicultural purposes were concerned, and would turn it over to uses of a totally different nature—and which, in law, would amount to a waste. An injunction to restrain the defendants from renting out the land for booths, &c., was prayed for.

On the other side it was urged that after the lessee had possession of the land he was not bound to devote it to agricultural objects, but might use it for any lawful purpose that did not injure the reversionary interest of the lessor—and that the use proposed by the defendants did not constitute a waste under this tenancy.

Affidavits were read on each side as to the defendants did not constitute a waste under this tenancy.

Affidavits were vead on each side as to the effect likely to result from use of the land for the objects stated.

The further hearing was continued until Saturday—the restraining order being in the mean time set aside, on defendants giving bond in the sum of $1,500 to abide the final order.

Another Topher-like Day-Five Mes Sun-struck—Three Fatally.—Yesterday was a very hot day, and particularly oppressive in the sun, the thermometer in exposed places rising as high as 90 and 92° in the shade. Five persons during the day were sun-struck, three of them, it is supposed fatally.
